

MARCH 29, 2016 DATA DAY 3.0

Mark your calendars!

On March 29th Carleton will celebrate the success of its strategic initiatives in Data Sciences, including its partnership with IBM.

The event will feature presentations by Carleton researchers and industry professionals, a panel discussion attended by leading national experts, and a poster competition to showcase graduate student research using Data Sciences in all disciplines. The event will be hosted by the Carleton Institute for Data Science.
